GREETINGS

from the Abbey of Gethsemani in Kentucky.

French Trappist monks founded the Abbey of Gethsemani in 1848 here in Nelson County, Kentucky, ten miles south of Bardstown. As Trappist monks, we support our cloistered community through the work of our hands. Days of prayer and meditation allow for a few precious hours to produce our critically acclaimed fruitcake and fudge.

Handmade in small batches from only the freshest ingredients, every morsel reflects our devotion to the Trappist rule Ora et Labora (prayer and work). May our efforts become gifts of good taste for you and your family!

BLESSINGS,

B. Roger

Brother Roger, Operations Manager

Heavenly fruitcake, handmade daily

Cherries, pineapple, pecans, walnuts and more are blended into the rich batter

Fruitcakes are handmade in small batches to ensure the finest quality

Baked at low temperature to remain divinely moist, then aged in Kentucky Bourbon

Wonderful cake - this is unlike any fruitcake I have ever had. Not the candy sweet kind but rich and deep flavor.
— P. ETHRIDGE

Whole Fruitcakes

WHY USE KENTUCKY BOURBON?

The country's finest barrel-aged bourbon is crafted mere miles from the Abbey at Gethsemani. And we think it works flavor miracles. Kentucky bourbon features hints of spice and caramel that infuse our fruitcake with a bright-yet-balanced sweetness. When added to our fudge, it imparts a uniquely rich finish that leaves you craving more.
