Heavenly Taste, Hand Crafted

from the Abbey of Gethsemani in Kentucky

Our story begins in 1848 when a group of French Trappist Monks founded the Abbey of Gethsemani in the Kentucky wilderness. Strictly observing the Rule of St. Benedict, our community lives, prays, and works as monks have done for fifteen centuries.

175 Years in the Making

Decades of devotion have helped perfect our critically acclaimed fruitcake and fudge—the monastery's sole means of support. Using the finest fruits, nuts, and chocolate, plus genuine Kentucky Bourbon, our monks put comforting, homemade taste in every small batch.

Celebrate our upcoming 175th anniversary with us and treat loved ones to one-of-a-kind gifts delivered right to their homes.

BLESSINGS,

B. Roger

Brother Roger, Operations Manager

WHY USE KENTUCKY BOURBON?

The country's finest barrel-aged bourbon is crafted mere miles from the Abbey at Gethsemani. And we think it works flavor miracles. Kentucky Bourbon features hints of spice and caramel that infuse our fruitcake with a bright-yet-balanced sweetness. When added to our fudge, it imparts a uniquely rich finish that leaves you craving more.

Kentucky Bourbon Butter Walnut Fudge

Our rich, buttery white chocolate and walnut fudge is kicked up a notch by adding fine Kentucky Bourbon to the recipe.
